Monday

I had a great weekend. On Saturday afternoon, after GAMES, my friends and I went into Canterbury to do some shopping. On Sunday we all went to London and learnt about the artefacts in the British Museum and in the afternoon we enjoyed a city tour by bus.

After a fun day in London, it was back to the library to do some prep.

Now it's Monday...

After a busy morning I had lunch. At lunch we have the option of a variety of hot meals or sandwiches.
